

GBSC 'RITES'

Responsibility

- the social force that binds us to the team
- you are responsible for your own actions
- you are part of something larger & are responsible to your team mates
- be aware of how your actions affect others
- other teams count on us to fulfil our fixture and provide opposition

Inclusive

- we leave nobody out
- we work together
- we respect each other
- we respect our game

Tolerant

- we exercise tolerance in everything we do
- with tolerance we have power to accept, accommodate and adapt

Enjoyment

- this is why we get involved
- encourage and enjoy training and playing
- use baseball to enhance your lifestyle and build life skills
- safeguard our young players and help them have fun
- enjoy being part of a team and of the GBSC family

Sportsmanship

- strive to win, accept defeat
- give your best effort and appreciate others' efforts
- seek a mutual quest for excellence with your team mates, opponents, coaches and officials
- savour and meet competitive challenge with your finest performance
- observe fair play on and off the diamond
- be gracious in victory, dignified in defeat
- recognise endeavour and achievement
- play to win, but not at all costs
